

Fieldwork

A brief summary of the part of the field work carried out is presented. This work is carried out in two main lines:

- Firstly, interviews (18) and discussion groups (3) carried out with students and participants of different activities aimed at senior groups from different entities and their subsequent analysis.
- Secondly, literary workshops within the “Open class” programme, teaching sessions on creativity and ageing and workshops for knowledge transfer.